

NJSHA Committee Reports - December

Continuing Education Committee:

Congratulations, Victoria Nelson, for not only applying for the Minority Student Leadership Program award, but for being the honored recipient award! As a result, Victoria was awarded a stipend to attend the latest ASHA Convention and she will now be involved in ASHA's Leadership program!

---

February Webinar: New Department of Education Guidelines for NJTTS, The Role of the SLP (Sasika Brown)

Convention Committee:

Come join us April 26-27, 2018 for the NJSHA Convention.

Honors & Awards Committee:

Nominations for the 2018 NJSHA Honors and Awards are now being received. The deadline is February 2, 2018. Don't delay!! Nominate your colleague, someone you admire, a wonderful program, someone who has inspired you. We want to honor our members and this is the most meaningful expression of honor, to be recognized by one's professional organization. Submit nominations to info@NJSHA.org

Membership Committee:

NJSHA's membership committee is made up of NJSHA members who recognize the value of NJSHA membership. The committee wants to hear from all SLPs and audiologists with suggestions for what would make NJSHA membership even better. Email info@NJSHA.org with your ideas, suggestions and concerns.

Private Practice Committee:

Please visit the new and improved Private Practice Resource page on the NJSHA website :
<http://www.njsha.org/resources/committee-resources/workplace.php#private>

For tips on opening your own practice, please visit : <http://www.njsha.org/resources/committee-resources/pdfs/Tips-for-Opening-a-Practice.pdf>