

Consider your NJSHA membership as one of your latest professional credentials.

Build Your  Career with NJSHA
New Jersey Speech-Language-Hearing Association

You are a dedicated and caring professional. Now is the time to take the next exciting step in your career.

By joining the New Jersey Speech-Language-Hearing Association (NJSHA), you will be among nearly 1,500 recognized leaders in a profession that affects tens of thousands of lives in the state.

Expand your professional connections through multiple networking possibilities.

Have convenient and ongoing access to the latest continuing education programs, as you interact with innovators who are reshaping the delivery of quality speech-language and hearing services to clients.

Multiple opportunities for establishing and expanding clinic/university partnerships to improve services for clients and translate research into clinical practice.

New Jersey
Speech-Language-Hearing Association

312 North Avenue East, Suite 5
Cranford, NJ 07016

888-906-5742 • fax 908-967-5044

info@njsha.org • www.njsha.org

Create lasting relationships with mentors while also helping mold the next generation of audiologists, speech-language pathologists and speech, language and hearing scientists

Here are just some of the benefits of NJSHA membership awaiting you:

- 1 Building professional connections within your community and statewide
- 2 Having a legislative voice at the state and federal level on healthcare issues that impact you and the populations you serve
- 3 Participating in local conferences and the annual state Convention at a significant savings

- 4 Earning continuing education credits from a recognized ASHA CE provider in a fun and interactive atmosphere
- 5 Honing your leadership skills, whether on a committee or seeking election to NJSHA's board of directors
- 6 Winning awards that recognize your commitment to the profession and the Association
- 7 Enjoying the value and cost effectiveness of membership including:
 - an annual free webinar
 - discounted rates for professional development
 - access to members' only resources
- 8 Staying current with our quarterly magazine, VOICES, and members only email updates
- 9 Remaining knowledgeable and current on important school-based topics, New Jersey Department of Education regulations and legislation that affect you and your students
- 10 Expanding your networking circle through multiple opportunities to connect with fellow members

There are virtually endless ways in which a NJSHA membership can help you grow both professionally and personally.

Take the first step by calling us at 888-906-5742 or emailing us at info@njsha.org. We also invite you to learn more at NJSHA.org